

FewClix® for Outlook®

Save over 33,000 hours and
₹ 1 Crore every year!

(* For every 1,000 employees)

The Challenge

Did you know that email is costing your organization Crores of Rupees in unproductive person-hours every year? According to the Email Statistics Report (2013 – 2017) by the Radicati Group, the average worker spends almost 25% of their working day (over 2 hours) on email-related tasks! Worse, at least 50% of this time is unproductive!

This presents CIOs with a serious challenge – how to enable users to spend less time with their email and still get more done?

The Solution

FewClix (for Outlook) eliminates the damage that email causes to employee productivity, by enabling employees to find ANYTHING (emails, attachments, calendar entries and contacts) in their Outlook email in seconds, saving them up to 30 minutes every day and saving your organization Crores of Rupees (in thousands of unproductive person-hours) every year. In addition, FewClix increases your ROI on email investments up to 6x every year!

FewClix' Key Capabilities

1 Find ANY Email

With FewClix, users can find ANY message regardless of email volume or Outlook skills by using multiple and simultaneous search options to narrow down hundreds or even thousands of search results to the one that is required, in seconds!

2 Eliminate Clutter

FewClix can help users cut through inbox clutter to instantly reach messages that need their urgent attention (for example – emails from customers / supervisors, emails with meeting action items, emails with attachments to be reviewed, etc.). FewClix does this by enabling users to effortlessly filter their inbox using just “clicks”!

3 One-Click Search

Users can now eliminate the hassle of manually organizing their email into folders. With FewClix' 'My Searches' capability that enables them to save and instantly access frequent searches, they can find ANY email in their mailbox with just a single click!

4 Find ANY attachment

Users no longer need to preview or open multiple messages in order to locate an attachment. With FewClix' 'Attachment View' capability, they can search and instantly locate ANY attachment in their mailbox in seconds!

5 Find ANY meeting

FewClix enables users to locate information about ANY appointment or meeting in their Outlook Calendar, in seconds! Using the 'Calendar Search' capability, users can easily locate past / future appointments, meeting invitations they have not responded to, meetings with certain participants, etc.

6 Find ANY contact

Users can also locate ANY contact in their Outlook Address Book in seconds, using FewClix' 'Contact Search' capability.
